

A Warm Welcome

Local law firm Wilson Browne LLP is delighted to confirm that on 1st February 2010 Alison Humphrys joined the firm's Care Team and will work alongside Partners Fiona Moore and Deena Tate.

All three lawyers are members of the Law Society's Children's Panel and have between them over 45 years of experience in acting for children and parents in both private and public law proceedings.

Alison joins the firm from another local Leicester firm and will be well known to many already. She has a wealth of experience in this specialist area of work. Alison joins the team in Leicester and takes over from Glennis Corkill following her appointment as a full-time District Judge on the North Eastern Circuit.

Alison is supported by members of our Care Team in Northamptonshire. Both Fiona Moore and Deena Tate have many years of expertise in this field and act for Guardians and parents alike. The team also benefit from having Sian, Lauren and Karin providing key support and assistance in the office.

Our Care Team is one of the strongest in the East Midlands, boasting some of the most respected lawyers in this area of the law and we wish Alison all the best as part of the Wilson Browne team.

Pictured above – Alison Humphrys (right) with Danka Neuborn