Wilson Bear

Chief Entertainment Officer

Wilson Bear: a unique part of the team who encapsulates our 'professional but down to earth and friendly' approach.

Having a bear as a mascot does not mean we don't take the business of law seriously: it just means we're an approachable lot, here to guide you every step of the way, explaining complex legal matters in terms people can understand.

As bears go, he has quite a following, having appeared in his own series of TV ads shown on Sky and Virgin. When everyone else was talking about 'the new normal', Wilson Bear was there saying (growling?) "we're not new, and we've never been normal!"
